Quale Press is not a non-profit entity. Any subscriptions, donations or contributions are not tax deductible. Quale Press is not a non-profit because we do not want to accept, or be beholden to, government grants. In addition, Quale Press does not want a governing board, or an editorial board, mitigating its editorial vision. Quale Press uses monies from the services it provides to other publishers in order to subsidize its own publishing program. Literary publishing is almost always a losing proposition. Quale Press is not supported by any largesse (whether trust fund, government or foundation grants). Any contribution to support what we do is always greatly appreciated.

$1,000.00 or more entitles you to a lifetime subscription. You will receive one copy of each book we publish and free admission to all Quale Press events for either your life or the life of Quale Press.

$250.00 entitles you to receive one copy of any book we publish a year and free admission to all Quale Press events for five years.

$100.00 entitles you to one copy of any book we publish a year and free admission to all Quale Press events for two years.

$50.00 entitles you to one copy of a book we publish this year and free admission to all Quale Press events for this year.
